Undergraduate Programs

Between the spring and summer semesters, and the fall and spring semesters, students may participate in intensive Intersession courses, which meet five nights a week for two weeks. These include Wintersession during the beginning of January, May Intersession in the final weeks of May, and August Intersession offered in the first weeks of August.

Students also have the option of enrolling in Summer School courses that are offered in various semester terms including First Summer (June), Second Summer (July) and Full Summer (June and July).

Please contact the Admissions Counselor on your regional campus to prepare for enrollment in your semester of choice.

Checklist for Admission

- Apply for Admission online at www.olemiss.edu/apply. There is a non-refundable application fee ($40 for Mississippi residents; $60 for non-residents).
- Submit Transcripts. To be admitted to the University of Mississippi, please ask each college you have previously attended to send an official (sealed or emailed E-script) copy of your transcript directly to: University of Mississippi Undergraduate Admissions, P.O. Box 1848, University, MS 38677.
- Submit Immunization Documentation. All applicants born after January 1, 1957, must submit proof of two immunizations for measles and one for rubella prior to registration. Medical history and certificate of compliance forms are available at healthcenter.olemiss.edu. Submit these documents to your regional campus or the Oxford campus address shown on the form. If you have questions about immunization requirements, contact Student Health Services at (662) 915-7274.
- Apply for Financial Aid and Scholarships. Financial aid representatives are available on each campus. The regional scholarship application priority deadlines are June 30 for fall admission and January 1 for spring admission. Submit a FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) online at www.fafsa.gov in order to be considered for all federal and need-based institutional financial aid. The University of Mississippi financial aid school code is 002440.
- Meet with an Academic Advisor. Academic advising is available on the regional campuses and is required before registering for courses each semester. Call your campus's main office to schedule an appointment after you receive your admission acceptance letter.
- Stay Updated. Check your Ole Miss e-mail and regional campus website regularly for important information such as course schedules, registration dates, textbook information, etc. You can also follow your campus on Facebook or Twitter.
- Orientation is required for all transfer students. Get all of the important information you need as a student on an Ole Miss regional campus, and have your student ID made. You will receive orientation information prior to your declared term of enrollment.
