

Key West, Florida

ENG 397 / SSt 597

One Human Family: Literature in Place and the Literary History of Key West

Details

10 days travel at $2,600 plus tuition

3 Credit Hours

Instructed by: Dr. Eric Solomon

Travel dates: May 12-22, 2026

Priority Application Deadline: March 27, 2026

Students will:

- Tour important cultural and historic sites in Key West, Florida.
- Survey and map the literary and cultural geography of Key West, Florida.
- Explore how creative artists cultivate space, time, and inspiration.
- Examine the conditions of artists' lives with particular attention paid to place, race, class, gender, and sexuality.
- Ponder how artists and writers build a creative practice that is sustainable.
- Explore and reflect on the ethical call of the "One Human Family" official philosophy of Key West

Who should go?

The course is open to all students of any major that is interested in interdisciplinary scholarship on culture and identity, theories of place and space, critical GIS studies, Caribbean studies, and museum and archival studies may also enjoy this course.

Prior to Departure

Meet with your Ole Miss instructor and fellow classmates on the Oxford campus for introductions and an orientation.

During Travel

Students make their own travel arrangements to and from Miami. Study USA arranges ground transportation from Miami to Key West and local transportation while in Key West. Double occupancy hotel booked and paid by Study USA. Instructors will share meeting dates and times during orientation.

Costs

$2,600 plus tuition, local transportation during course, lodging/accommodation during travel, select group meals, museum admission, and group tours listed on the itinerary. Not included are tuition, airfare to and from destination, most meals at travel site, and personal spending money.

Once accepted to a program, the student accepts financial responsibility for Study USA program fees and tuition and must adhere to the application and withdrawal policy.

Itinerary subject to change. Students should wait to make travel arrangements until after confirming dates and times with instructors

THE UNIVERSITY of MISSISSIPPI

Study USA

Visit outreach.olemiss.edu/study\_usa for application information