3 Credit Hours

Instructed by: Dr. Angela Green

Travel dates: May 31-June 6, 2026

Priority Application Deadline: March 27, 2026

Students will:

- Explore notable sites, with a suggested itinerary that includes:
- The Library of Congress
- The Smithsonian Museum for African American History and Culture
- The International Spy Museum
- Frederick Douglass National Historic Site
- The Metropolitan AME Church
- The African American Civil War Museum
- Anthony Bowen House

Who should go?

Open to all students. Credit for either WRIT 102/LIBA 102/HONS 102 is the only prerequisite. While the course is open to all students, those in African American Studies and the Isom Center for Women and Gender Studies may find it of special interest and possibly for dual credit.

Prior to Departure

Meet with your Ole Miss instructor and fellow classmates on the Oxford campus for an introduction to class materials.

During Travel

Students make their own travel arrangements to and from the destination. Study USA will arrange all necessary ground transportation during your travel dates, starting from your arrival. Study USA also books and provides double-occupancy rooms. Your instructor will provide exact meeting dates and location during orientation. Students may have their airfare billed to their bursar account. You'll receive details upon course enrollment.

Costs

$1,600 plus tuition, local transportation during course, lodging/accommodation during travel, select group meals, museum admission, and group tours listed on the itinerary. Not included are tuition, airfare to and from destination, most meals at travel site, and personal spending money.

Once accepted to a program, the student accepts financial responsibility for Study USA program fees and tuition and must adhere to the application and withdrawal policy.

Itinerary subject to change. Students should wait to make travel arrangements until after confirming dates and times with instructors
