

Details

8 days travel at $2,350 plus tuition

3 Credit Hours

Instructed by: Dr. Don Guillory

Travel dates: March 14-21, 2027

Priority Application Deadline:

January 15, 2027

Students will:

- Walk Historic Black Neighborhoods – Explore places like Encanto, downtown Phoenix.
- Visit Green Book & Civil Rights Sites – Learn how Black travelers and communities created safe spaces and institutions in the Southwest.
- Engage with Museums, Archives, and Cultural Centers – Study African American history and art at museums, libraries, and historical societies.
- Meet Scholars, Artists, and Community Leaders – Participate in presentations and conversations with historians, cultural workers, and organizations.
- Experience Black Arts &

Performance – Attend theater presentations and explore public art and cultural districts.

- Daily Group Discussions & Debriefs – Connect readings and site visits through guided reflection and discussion with classmates.
- Present Your Research on Location – Share individual or group projects inspired by travel, place, and lived history.

Who should go?

Open to all current students who have earned at least 24 credit hours.

Prior to Departure

In-person: Jan 20, Feb 10, and March 3, 2027. Meet with your Ole Miss instructor several times in the Spring before traveling to the Southwest.

During Travel

Study USA will book flights round trip from Memphis for this class. Shared accommodations will be provided offering a convenient base for your stay. Study USA arranges any ground transportation required during the travel dates. Your instructor will share exact meeting times and locations before travel and will be available to you leading up to the course through Blackboard.

Costs

$2,350 plus tuition. The program fee includes airfare to and from destination, local transportation during course, lodging/accommodation during travel, select group meals, and daily activities listed in itinerary. Not included is tuition, most meals at travel site, and personal spending money.

Once accepted to a program, the student accepts financial responsibility for Study USA program fees and tuition and must adhere to the application and withdrawal policy.

Itinerary subject to change. Students should wait to make travel arrangements until after confirming dates and times with instructors

THE UNIVERSITY of MISSISSIPPI

Study USA

Visit outreach.olemiss.edu/study_usa for application information