Students will:

- Explore historic New Orleans, including The Cabildo at Jackson Square and Congo Square at Louis Armstrong Park
- Stay at the Dauphine Orleans Hotel in the heart of New Orleans's famous French Quarter
- Consider the complicated legacies of Storyville, New Orleans' former red-light district
- Tour the Backstreet Cultural Museum, the Southern Food and Beverage Museum, and the New Orleans African American Museum
- Dig into the Newcomb Center Archives at Tulane University and the LGBT+ Archives Project of Louisiana
- Sample some of New Orleans' most unforgettable foods at Café Du Monde, Domilise's Po-Boys and Brocato's Ice Cream Parlor

Dates:

Students will need to be on location in New Orleans on January 5, 2022, for class running January 5, 2022, through January 10, 2022. Students will then be back in Oxford for class meetings on January 13th and 14th.

Location:

A majority of the course will take place in businesses and cultural centers throughout New Orleans.

Costs:

The course fee is $900. Included in the fee are housing, group ground transportation, select group meals, and museum fees. Excluded from the cost are tuition, travel expenses to/from New Orleans, most meals, and personal spending money.

Who should go?

This cross-listed course may interest students in the Humanities and Social Sciences (particularly History, Sociology, Gender Studies, English, African American Studies, Journalism, Writing, and Education) as well as students enrolled in General Studies.

Students in the following organizations may also be interested in this cross-listed course: UM Pride Network, UM NAACP, RASA, Students Against Social Injustice, FEMISS, students affiliated with the Center for Inclusion & Cross-Cultural Engagement and the William Winter Institute.

There are no prerequisites to register for GSt 395 but students seeking WRIT 398 credit will need to have completed WRIT/LIBA/HON/ENGL 102.

Travel:

Students are responsible for making their own travel arrangements to and from New Orleans, LA. Ground Transportation related to program activities will be provided during program dates in New Orleans.
