

Roadtrip

NHM 468

Nashville, TN; Washington, DC; Baltimore, MD; and Atlanta, GA
Historical Significance Of Minorities In Health Professions

Details

Dates: On Campus: May 15-19, 2023;
on the road May 21-26, 2023*

Credit Hours: 3

Instructors: Dr. Sovent Taylor,
Director of Health Professions
Advising Office; and Dr. EJ Edney,
Assistant Vice Chancellor for Diversity and Inclusion

Cost: $1,200 plus tuition

Application Deadline: April 6, 2023

Students will:

- Review the history of healthcare from the first 19 minority medical schools until today
- Learn about Henrietta Lacks and her contributions to medicine
- Look at the significant achievements of minorities in healthcare
- Visit sites for contextualization, including Meharry Dental School, Johns Hopkins Medical School, Morehouse School of Medicine, and the National Museum of African American History

Dates/Location

Students will participate in a week of classes on the Oxford campus from May 15th-19th with specific times and locations determined by the instructors. During the travel portion of the course, students will be transported roundtrip from Oxford to Nashville, TN; Washington, DC; Baltimore, MD; and Atlanta, GA via a coach bus. This travel will take place between May 21st and 26th.

Who should go?

This program is intended for students who are interested in healthcare, African-American history, and/or medical professions. All participants must be enrolled through the Health Professions Advising Office and pursuing admission to a professional school.

Costs

The Study USA program fee is $1,200. Included in the program fee are housing, roundtrip transportation from Oxford, course related transportation during travel, and select group meals. Excluded from the cost are most meals and personal spending money.

Travel

Students are responsible for their own travel within Oxford. All travel for this course outside Oxford is included in the program cost. Students will travel via coach bus from Oxford to Nashville, on to Washington and Baltimore (where transportation on the Metro will be provided), then back to Oxford via Atlanta on a coach bus.

Itinerary and class dates are subject to change. Please verify specific dates with instructor and confirm that the course has adequate enrollment to make before making travel arrangements.*

THE UNIVERSITY of MISSISSIPPI

Study USA

Visit outreach.olemiss.edu/study_usa for application information